General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Use Form SZ-101 if Streaminz removed or disabled your clip, highlight, playlist, comment, or other content because of a copyright notice, and you believe the removal was a mistake or a misidentification. This is a counter-notification under 17 U.S.C. § 512(g)(3).

For any other action we took on your account or content, reply to our decision e-mail instead.

Before You File

A counter-notification is a legal document. Sending one gives the person who filed the notice your contact details and lets them sue you in court. If you are unsure whether your use is lawful, consider talking to a lawyer first.

Required Information

The items marked with a diamond are the elements required by § 512(g)(3): your signature; identification of the removed material and where it appeared; the statement under penalty of perjury on line 9; your name, address, and telephone number; and the consent to jurisdiction on line 10.

How To Submit

Fill in the form on screen, or print it and complete it by hand. Save it as a PDF, or scan the signed printout, and e-mail it with any attachments to nillpoe@verchase.com. Use the subject line Form SZ-101: [your full name] so the request reaches the right team. We reply from the same address with a case number; quote it in any follow-up.

Requests sent in another format are still reviewed, but they take longer because we may need to write back for missing details.

Our designated agent can also receive counter-notifications by mail at Verchase, Ltd., Attn: Yejun Ho, Copyright Agent, 16192 Coastal Highway, Lewes, DE 19958, United States. Telephone: +1 (302) 217 0072 (e-mail preferred).

What Happens Next

- We review the counter-notification and send a copy to the person who filed the original notice.
- We tell them we will restore the material, or stop disabling access to it, in 10 business days.
- We restore it not less than 10 nor more than 14 business days after we receive your counter-notification, unless our designated agent first receives notice that the filer has started a court action seeking to restrain you from the infringing activity on our service.
- If a court action is filed, the material stays down and the matter is between you and the filer.

Specific Instructions

Part I

Enter your own legal name and a physical address where you can receive legal papers. A P.O. box is not enough. Lines 4a and 4b help us find your account.

Part II

Use the case number and links in our removal notice. List the URL where each item appeared before removal.

Part III

Explain briefly. Attach a license or permission if you have one.

Part IV

Check boxes 9 and 10 and sign. Box 11 confirms you have read the warning.

Privacy Notice

Verchase, Ltd. uses the information on this form to process your counter-notification under 17 U.S.C. § 512(g). The law requires us to send it, including your contact information, to the person who filed the original notice. We keep a record of it with the related notice.
